UNITED STATES MEDICAL CORPS

July 15, 1944

Dear Mom,

Well I finally received my bracelet yesterday. I have also gotten 83 letters in the last four days. I guess most of them have caught up with me now. Have even gotten a couple of your recent letters in 10 days. Have also gotten three Prognosis's, sent one to Alvin Whitten. Got a letter from one of the boys you picked up! Haven't gotten the candy or the films. I think Paul Edmunds is about right, I would say the same thing if someone asked me that! I got all the addresses you sent me! your handwriting photo's well and your letters aren't censored!

Things are still the same here, it rains almost all of the time and most of the Roofs leak, even on the wards.

Everything sticks around here; the envelopes seal themselves before you use them and most of the pills
on the wards stick and run together.

We have a good dental man so I guess I will be getting my teeth fixed soon, especially the one I broke on the way over.

There isn't too much to write about
at present so I'd better sign off
now.

your loving son,
Jimmy

P.S. Enclosed you will find a couple of clippings from the Cannonard Post.
