

Sunday, 15th

Dear Mom,

Please notice new a.p.o. number #279 I haven't moved anywhere yet but we will probably get our mail faster now.

Bar came down and we had a big party that night - "stateside" whiskey beer, and "ging-baw" juice - the next day Bar and myself went to headquarters to see our C.O. (of 259th) and got Bar transferred back here - looks like our outfit (259th) may be organized soon - at least I hope so.
I'm tired of being on detached service - haven't been with own unit since I've been overseas -

We held services for Pres. Roos.
Saturday, his death really was a shock, wasn't it?

It is turning very warm now, we went into sun tans today and have to put up our mosquito nets, guess that means more work for me since I'm in charge of malaria and fly control.

The "Littlenwhets" lost a ball game to-day - it wasn't a bad game but we didn't do any hitting - only two hits were gotten - Sam got one and I got the other. I made my first double play of the season.

Well that's all far now - am O.K. and feeling fine - still haven't gotten the sardines but have gotten the socks, underwear, and "T" shirts (soy send some candy bars if you can (not Hershey's) } Will write soon - your loving son.
Jimmy
